

The Road Map Improvement Collaborative Presents

ELEVATING YOUTH OF COLOR VOICE & LEADERSHIP

This learning collaborative aims to:

Support self-assessment of district practices and policies to elevate Youth of Color voice and leadership.

Increase Youth of Color voice & engagement across district decision-making tables.

Build school & district capacity for valuing the time, space & opportunity for Youth of Color voice and leadership.

Strengthen & sustain within- & cross-district Youth of Color-centered communities & connections.

1 JAN 14, 2022 | 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

District Self-Assessment

What is our “why” for elevating Youth of Color voice & leadership?

What systems do we have in place & where do we want to improve?

2 MAR 18, 2022 | 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

From Listening Towards Authentic Partnerships with Youth of Color

At what decision-making tables do Youth of Color currently sit? What are their experiences in these spaces?

How are they involved in strategy & decision-making?
Where can we go from here?

3 APR 22, 2022 | 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Supporting & Strengthening Student-Centered Educational Justice Communities

What do strong student-centered educational justice communities look and feel like?

What could regional leaders do to make these communities more accessible & impactful for Youth of Color?

4 MAY 23, 2022 | 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

A Strong Regional Community of Youth Leaders of Color

What are the essential conditions & who are the adult champions that help to elevate youth of color voice & leadership?

How are districts planning forward for Youth of Color voice & leadership work for 2022-2023?

How can our youth leaders & adult champions continue to monitor & improve these district efforts?

“We hope that we can see and feel real changes. For us this means a more human experience, a safe experience, & an experience where we are involved in key decisions that impact us.”

Community Conversations: Pandemic Learning & Returning to School in South King County, (p. 12, 2021)

Intended participants for this learning collaborative:

The collaborative is designed in partnership with Road Map Youth Leaders of Color and is designed for district teams from any of our 7 Road Map Districts: Auburn, Federal Way, Highline, Kent, Renton, Seattle & Tukwila.

We recommend district teams of 3-5 participants comprised of: systems decision-makers, adult leaders who are youth leadership champions and/or program implementers & Youth of Color leaders representing those impacted by these decisions.
